North Bus Tour Bios:

Gold Star Families for Peace members: Karen Meredith of Mountain View, CA, whose son, 1st Lt Kenneth Ballard, fourth generation Army, was killed in action in Najaf, Iraq on May 30, 2004.

Al Zappala of Philadelphia, PA, whose son Sgt. Sherwood Baker was the first Pennsylvania National Guardsman to die in combat since World War II. He was killed in Baghdad on April 26, 2004.

Military Families Speak Out members: Stacy Bannerman of Kent, WA, whose husband in the Washington National Guard served an extended tour of duty in Iraq. A “stop loss” order forced him to serve in Iraq eight months past his 20-year commitment, which ended in June 2004.

Sheri Glover of Houston, TX, whose 19 year old daughter who has completed Active Duty Service in the US Army and is currently in the Individual Ready Reserve and eligible for recall back. Her son-in-law serves in the Army and is currently serving in Iraq. Sherry is active in Disabled American Veterans Auxiliary and holds the position of junior vice commander of unit 9 in Houston.

Tammara Rosenleaf of Belton, TX, whose husband serves in the Army, stationed at Ft. Hood, and will be deploying to Iraq this fall.

Iraq Veterans Against the War members: Cody Camacho of Chicago, IL, served as Army specialist for four years. He was deployed to Iraq from March 2003 to March, 2004, and was honorably discharged in October, 2004.

Central Bus Tour Bios:

Gold Star Families for Peace members: Bill Mitchell of Atascadero, CA, whose son Sgt. Michael Mitchell was killed in action in Sadr City, Iraq on April 4, 2004, along with Cindy Sheehan's son Spc. Casey Sheehan. Bill is a co-founder of Gold Star Families for Peace.

Beatriz Saldivar of Fort Worth, TX, whose nephew Daniel Torres was killed in action on February 4th, 2005 in Bayqii, 155 miles north of Baghdad, on his 2nd tour of Iraq when an IED (Improvised Explosive Device) exploded and hit his unarmored Humvee. Shes is available for interviews in English and Spanish.

Celeste Zappala of Philadelphia, PA, whose son Sgt. Sherwood Baker was the first Pennsylvania National Guardsman to die in combat since World War II. He was killed in Baghdad on April 26, 2004.

Military Families Speak Out members: Mia Lorraine of Sebastopol, CA, whose son is a Captain in the Army and served in Iraq from February, 2004 to February, 2005.

Lietta Ruger of Bay Center, Washington, whose son-in-law and nephew serve in the 1st Armored Division of the U.S. Army and are currently in Germany. They have both served extended 15-month tours of duty in Iraq; they are both under stop-loss orders and due to re-deploy to Iraq this fall.

Kallisa Stanley of Killeen, TX, whose husband is in the Army and currently stationed at Ft. Hood. He served one year-long tour of duty in Iraq and is scheduled to be redeployed to Iraq next Iraq Veterans Against the War members: Hart Viges of Austin, TX, who served in the 82nd Airborne Division and was deployed to Iraq from February, 2003 to January, 2004. After returning home, Hart applied for and was awarded Conscientious Objector status.

South Bus Tour Bios:
Gold Star Families for Peace members: Cindy Sheehan of Vacaville, CA, whose son Spc. Casey Sheehan served in the Army and was killed in action in Sadr City on April 4, 2004. Cindy is a co-founder of Gold Star Families for Peace.
Brooke Beasley, of Dallas, TX, whose cousin, Marine Staff Sgt Aaron Dean White, was killed in a helicopter crash near Al Hillah, Iraq on May 19, 2003.
Julie Cuniglio, of Dallas, Texas, whose nephew, Marine Staff Sgt Aaron Dean White, was killed in a helicopter crash near Al Hillah, Iraq on May 19, 2003.

Military Families Speak Out members: Linda and Phil Waste of Hinesville, Georgia, who have 3 sons and 2 grandchildren (a grandson and a granddaughter) who are active-duty military. Together, they have already spent a total of over 57 months on tours of duty in Iraq. Several of these children/grandchildren are currently serving in Iraq, and have served extended and multiple deployments.
Vince George of Shepherdstown, WV, whose brother is in the Pennsylvania National Guard and may be deployed to Iraq in the future.

Iraq Veterans Against the War members: Jimmy Massey of Waynesville, NC, served in the 3rd Battalion, 7th Marines from January 20 to May 15, 2003 and was part of the main invasion force in Iraq.

Jeff Key of Alabama, a Marine reservist, served in Iraq from March to June, 2003.

Veterans for Peace: Tom Palumbo, of Norfolk, VA served in the Army and Army Reserves for 13 years, including one year in Korea; he is also a former nurse for the Veterans Administration.

Ann Wright of Honolulu, HI, was a career foreign service officer with the State Department. She resigned her position in March of 2003 in opposition to the war in Iraq.

Not on Any Tour Bios:
Gold Star Families for Peace members: Carlos Arredondo of Roslinandale, MA, whose son Alexander Arredondo served with the Marines in Iraq and was killed in action on August 25, 2004.

Amy Branham of Houston, TX, whose son, Sgt. Jeremy R. Smith, was with a US Army Reserves Unit activated in Nov. 2003. By February 2004 they were on their way to Iraq. Sgt.
Smith died in a car accident outside Ft. Hood five days before he was to leave with his unit.

Military Families Speak Out members: Sherry Bohlen of Scottsdale, Arizona whose son serves in the Army and deployed to Iraq on June 10, 2005.

Iraq Veterans Against the War members: Michael Hoffman